

GEOGRAPHY CURRICULUM INTENT:

At Newbottle and Charlton we want children to be fascinated about the world and the people in it. Their curiosity should last for the whole of their lives. Children should know about the diversity of places, people, natural and human environments. They should also understand physical and human processes of the planet Earth.

Characteristics of a Geographer:

- An excellent knowledge of where places are and what they are like.
- An excellent understanding of the ways in which places are interdependent and interconnected and how much human and physical environments are interrelated.
- An extensive base of geographical knowledge and vocabulary.
- Fluency in complex, geographical enquiry and the ability to apply questioning skills and use effective analytical and presentational techniques.
- The ability to reach clear conclusions and develop a reasoned argument to explain findings.
- Significant levels of originality, imagination or creativity as shown in interpretations and representations of the subject matter.
- Highly developed and frequently utilised fieldwork and other geographical skills and techniques.
- A passion for and commitment to the subject, and a real sense of curiosity to find out about the world
